

green [grin], verde
 light [lait] (agg.), leggero, chiaro young [jʌŋ], giovane clever ['klevə], intelligente, capace, ingegnoso several ['sevrəl], parecchi, diversi this, questo -a that, quello -a these [ði:z], questi -e those [ðouz], quelli -e to wear, wore, worn [wɛə, wɔ:, wɔ:n], portare, indossare

to have on, had on, had on, portare, indossare to put on, put on, put on, indossare = mettere to take off, took off, taken off ['teik 'ɔ:f, tuk, 'teikən], togliere to buy, bought, bought [bai, bɔ:t], comperare to suit [sju:t], addirsi, star bene to rest [rest], riposare to waste [weist], sciupare = sprecare to be on one's way [wʌnz wei], essere diretto

I - Tradurre in italiano:

1. This is my coat, it is mine; these are her gloves, they are hers; those are our new shoes, they are ours; that is his tweed jacket, it is his. — 2. This hat is not mine, it is not my hat; that racket is not yours, it is not your racket; these tennis balls are not ours, they are his. — 3. Is this tie yours? Are these gloves hers? Are these handkerchiefs ours? Is that coat yours? — 4. "Is Daddy at home?" "Yes, he is in his study with an American gentleman". — 5. "Where is Grandfather?" "He is upstairs. When he wants to rest he goes to his room, takes off his coat, tie, collar, shoes and puts on his dressing gown". — 6. Tell John to put on his overcoat if he goes out. It is a cold day. — 7. Helen bought a green dress for her birthday party; it is a colour that suits her. — 8. I was on my way back home from the station when I met Mrs. Young; I asked her to have lunch with us when she comes up to town. — 9. Do you know her son? He is a very clever boy and knows a lot (molto) about music and pictures. His sister does not talk much but she is very kind and I like her. — 10. "Do you like my new coat?" "I like its colour and then it is a very good cut (taglio)". — 11. Those boys always talk about their holidays and their favourite sports, never about their work. — 12. George leaves at seven because he doesn't like to be late for his lessons. — 13. My father reads his newspaper and smokes (fuma) a cigarette with his cup of tea before he goes to the office. — 14. "Do you know Mrs. Green?" "Only by sight (di vista), but I know her daughter well; I often see her when I go up to town".

II - Tradurre in inglese:

1. I nostri amici e i vostri; i loro libri e i nostri; i di lei figli; le di lui sorelle. — 2. È tuo questo. porta sigarette?; è sua (di lei) questa racchetta?; sono vostri questi guanti?; sono loro questi impermeabili? — 3. Mi piace il tuo abito verde; il mio è troppo chiaro da portare d'inverno (for winter wear). — 4. « Sai dove sia (è) il mio porta sigarette? » « Credo che sia sul tuo scrittoio; era là stamattina ». —